

JOHN L. ALDEN TRANSPORTATION, WAREHOUSING AND BUSINESS LAW

B.B.A. (1966) from Ohio University
M.B.A. (1967) from Ohio University
J.D. (1972) from The Ohio State University - College of Law

John has practiced in transportation, warehousing, business and corporate law since 1975. His clients range from local bus and motor carriers to the largest nationwide carriers, including specialized carriers of all types. He also represents local and national warehousing companies and freight brokers, as well as shippers and insurance carriers requesting guidance in the ever-changing transportation and logistics areas.

In addition, John litigates cases in agencies and courts. He also has achieved favorable results representing clients in legislation pending before the Ohio State General Assembly. John always keeps his clients' business needs in mind and works to develop legal strategies to meet those needs. He is a member of the Columbus Bar Association (member, Public Utilities Committee), the Ohio State Bar Association (member, Public Utilities Committee), the Transportation Lawyers Association, the Association of Transportation Law, Logistics and Policy, the Conference of Freight Counsel, the Transportations and Logistics Council and participates in many other civic and cultural organizations.
