

VENDOR SUPPLY CHAIN ANALYST

Charlotte, NC Area

REQUIREMENTS: Must have four year degree with three (3) to five (5) years related experience in one or more Supply Chain disciplines - Manufacturing, Distribution, Transportation, Production Planning/ Scheduling or Inventory Management. Must have excellent analytical skills; strong interpersonal skills; excellent organizational skills; strong planning and evaluating skills; and their ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously while meeting numerous deadlines. Strongly prefer MBA and APICS Certification – CPIM.

DUTIES: This person will be responsible for identifying and implementing optimal Supply Chain decisions for an assigned business unit. The positions goals will be achieved by developing an in depth understanding of Manufacturing, Distribution and Transportation of key product categories. He person hired will be responsible for: Vendor Compliance – ensure that vendors in a particular business area are compliant with business guidelines, particularly in regards to fill rate and on time shipments; Cost Reduction- drive profitability into product teams through analysis and selection of the optimal distribution channel; the key focus on reducing costs related to distribution, freight, and inventory; also responsible for identifying and implementing Supply Chain process improvements through collaboration with strategic supplier partners; Damage Reduction - responsible for working with entire Supply Chain in reducing product damage; Product Flow – responsible to handle all issuers related to the flow of product from the vendor to the end consumer.

CONTACT:

Bill Bright, CPC

firstPROinc

Phone: 678 510-7407

Email: b.bright@firstproinc.com

October 2011