

Supply Chain Optimization Manager

Salary $85K to $100K - Bonus
Memphis, Tennessee - will relocate.

A very well funded packaging company is seeking a visionary. They need a thorough professional to Optimize their Supply Chain and Logistics. Can you develop financial metrics, do Logistics modeling to optimize costs and services? Present to the Board of Directors at 9 AM, and then arrange trucks at 10:30. BUILD YOUR LEGACY! You're going to streamline and optimize this group from the inside out. If your still arranging trucks a year from now you've blown it. This is TRULY an exciting opportunity.
